WESTERN TURF WAR ENDED

Outlaw Rule Lifted by Jockey Club and Barred Horses Ran at the Memphis Meeting.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Memphis, Tenn., April 1.-In the cold and bleak the spring meeting at Montgomery Park was begun Monday. Four thousand persons braved the weather.

Robinson & Leach's mare Larkspur, well ridden by Russell Ransom, won the Montgemery Handicap in a field of twelve by a good length. She was apparently all out and doing her best. Aloha II, very eleverly ridden by J. Woods, was beaten by The Conqueror for place by an eyelash. The Unknown, badly handled by Vitatoe, was close up, and the rest bunched not far away. The candidates were called to the post at 4:15, and after a short delay oceasioned by the bad acting of The Unknown and Joe Doughty running away and by a neck in throwing his jockey they were off to an the favorite. excellent start and well bunched.

Ohnet cut out the running and for a time looked as if he would win, but died away at the head of the stretch. Caviar, Aloha II. Lark vir. The Conqueror, Laureate and The Luknown ran well together all the way, and at the head of the stretch Larkspur seemed to be running easiest, and | came on managing to win by a length. The betting indicated the excellence of the hendicap, as the favorite, Caviar, was ar-ways 2 to 1, and carried the money of Sieve L'Hommedieu and other plungers, followed by the crowd, who believed they were betting on the winner. The handi-cap, although run under adverse circumstances, was a brilliant race and proved all that was predicted for it.

Starter Fitzgerald dispatched the fields guickly and to the entire sat.s.action of the public. Jockey J. Woods carried off the riding honors of the day. Rea Hook managed to beat H. L. Cole-man because the matter was a trifle slow Janowood just managed to be the warm thing in the last race. Joe Collins was thought to be one that was already in, but he could not last, and had to be content with second money.

Nineseen books and two fieldbooks did a rashing business. Captain James H. Rees, B. M. Apperson and Frank G. Jones occupied the judges' stand. Captain Rees issued an order that the entries of the Unknown and Joe Doushry be refused in the future until they are thoroughly schooled to the barrier.

ACTION OF JOCKEY CLUB.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Chleago. April 1.—The Western Jockey Club took action Monday in two important matters that will make everything peacetal in the turf world of the West.

It decided to allow the so-called "Outlaws" of the Little Rock meeting to race at all Western Jockey Club tracks where stake entries were made before March 5, and to allow the owners of such entries to take part in over-night events.

take part in over-night events.

This is just what the Hayes-Scoggan comthe Owners' Protective bination, known as the Owners' Protective Association, asked for.

The Worth track, owned by the Wagners, received the spring dates that it asked for. The "outlaw" clause was discussed at great length. A majority were in favor of so modifying the original clause as to permit all of those owners who had made stake entries at Western Jockey Club tracks to fill their engagements, as well as to permit them to race in over-night events.

It was the prevailing opinion of the delegates that the "outlaw" clause, in its present form, would have the effect originally intended—that of clearing the Jockey Club tracks of a lot of practically worthless manitrals in the horse line and permitting the better grades of thoroughbreds to have the field to themselves. The cheaper grade of animals have a field of their own.

The discussion over the Worth dates resulted in the decision to bring forward the opening date of the first Lakeside meeting, originally set for April 25, to April 15, and to close the fifteen-day meeting May 1.

Worth may then open May 2, and race for twenty-one days. The dates originally assigned the new course were May 13 to May 25, which permitted of but twelve days.

The Kinloch Park Jockey Club of St. Louis requested that its spring dates, already assigned, be changed to begin May 1.

The accounting for ninety days from date. Action will be taken before the next regular monthly meeting.

Action will be taken before the next regu-lar monthly meeting.

The stewards accepted the resignation of Robert Auli, ex-president of the St. Louis Fair Association, and removed the St. Louis track from the membership of the new organization. This action was expected because of the action of the recent meet-ing of the ntockholders of the association, who sold out their stock to an association affiliated with the Turf Congress.

The following list of officials to act at race meetings was approved;

NOT A FAVORITE WON.

Card at Bennings Proved an Enigma to the Talent.

Washington, April 1.—The card at Bennings Monday, while interesting, proyed an enigma to the talent, not a favorite winning in any of the events.

The first race went to Invasion, Speedmas, the favorite, finishing second and Revonah, heavily played, coming in last.

Tamah Nawis took the second by four lengths from Larcor and Nala equal favorites.

Only two borses started in the third race and Robert Waddell had it his own way. Kid Cox, the favorite, broke down and failed to finish.

The fourth was the most interesting event, There were four horses equally played for favorites. Sidedl, one of them, won out by half a length.

Beau, an outsider, won the fifth race by four lengths, Irene Lindsay, the favorite, finishing in the bunch.

In the last race Bill Daly's Belgrade won by a neck in front of Knight of the Garter, the favorite, the favorite, the favorite, the favorite, and the starter of the garter, the favorite, the favorite.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

San Francisco, Cal., April 1.—The victory of Lena at 15 and Flora Pomona at 12 to 1 and the defeat of Yellow Tail by Sly were the features of the card at Tanforan to-day. Headwater was the favorite in the first race, with Yellow Tail second choice. When the barrier went up Headwater propped and the others were twenty lengths away before he got to going. Yellow Tail went out in the lead and held the front place till they entered the stretch, where Siy challenged him and, in a hot drive, won by a neck, Hagerdon getting third place. Headwater made a brave effort, but could never get up. If he had gotten away well he would certainly have won.

Cruzados was made the favorite in the second race and looked an easy winner at the head of the stretch, but faded away in the race to the wire. Flora Pomona won at the end from Lucien Appleby, E. M. Brattin getting the slow.

the race to the wire. Flora Pomona won at the end from Lucien Appleby, E. M. Brattain getting the show.

Hermoso cut out the pace in the third and looked the victor, but in a drive through the stretch Gibraliar won out by a narrow marsic, Hermoso seiting the place from Maggie Davis, the favorite.

The Barrack was a 5-to-5 favorite in the fourth, but Redwald came in for a heavy lay. Lenn, a neglected 15-to-1 shot, assumed the lead at the start and was never headed, winning by two leigths from Barrack, with Redwald third, Leau Ormonde hopelersly outclassed her field in the fifth and won pulling up. Compasi beat Merida for the place in a drive.

The lest event was made a four-horse cace by scratches. Benson Caldwell was a rank favorite and did not figure in the contest. Beinota and Tony Lopping raced out in front and had the game to themselves, Bernota winning eleverly at the end.

NEW YORK TRACKS ARE LIVELY. Many Horses in Training for Coming Stake Events. REPUBLIC SPECIAL

New York, April I.—The going on the lo-cal tracks was better Sunday than at any other time this season. The trainers took advantage of it to send their charges some advantage of it to send their charges some good gallops.

The Sheepshead Bay track is being banked on the outside of the turns, and with this improvement to the otherwise perfect track the Coney Island Jockey Club expects to get its share of records when the campaign begins.

At Gravenend there are several smart youngst-rs in training, and the form shown by W. M. Barrick's 2-year-old McDowell, by Wagner, was about the best of the lot. Kahiti, in the Loud stable, also did good work Sunday. J. E. Fepper's string, in charge of Trainer Bert Davis, is among the latest arrivals at Morris Park, It includes five 3-year-old colts and filies by Kantaka. Of these, Baron Pepper is working well, while Queen Pepper, that raced at New Orleans, looks well advanced in condition. There are ten 2-year-olds, all except one by Kantaka. King Edward, by Kantaka—Saducee II, appears to be the pick of the collection. He is a grand bay, weighing 1000 pounds, and with the possible exception of Healy's Montana colt, Flying Buttress, is the best-looking 2-year-old at West-choster. Queen's Mcssenger, a bay filly, is also voted a good one and much resembles her relative. King's Courier, who won so many races in England last year. Ethelbert has wintered well, but so far Joyner has confined Perry Belmont's crack to slow work.

The controversy over the assignment of detes by the Western Jockey Club for the Chicago meetings has been ended by Harlem and Hawthorne allowing to the Worth ttack a week each from their fall meetings, and the managers of the new coursare willing to accept the few days allotted to them for the spring meeting.

Particulars of the sale of Garry Herrmann, which was made last week, indicat s that Charles Head Smith is by no means the of the colt's ability to win the Kentucky and American derbies. For some time before the sale to Captain S. S. Brown. Smith held out for an interest in the winnings of Garry Herrmann, in addition to $20,000. The deal was made after $5 mith saw the cult work a mile at Louisville. Afterwords he said:

"To tell the truth, I was a triffe disappointed in Herrmann's work, and he seemed pointed in Herrmann's work, and he seemed to have something the matter with him. Mind you, I am not trying to sell Brown a gold brick. His train r saw the work standing alongside of me, so there will be no complaint. I will get my price and that will end the matter."

Declarations are due, for the Juvenile. will end the matter."

Declarations are due for the Juvenile Stakes at $25, and the Fashion for fillies at $15, both to be run at the Morris Park spring meeting.

Seventeen fouls have been dropped at W. C. Waitney's La Belle stud this year, only three of which are colts. One is a bay filly by Kingston-Ballyhee, a full sister to Ballyhoo Bey. Most of the others are by Lissak and Meddler.

BRADY NAMED ASSOCIATE JUDGE. Veteran Turiman to He in the Stand at Both Local Tracks.

Sam W. Adler, general manager of the Delmar Jockey Club and one of the newly elected directors of the Fair Association, announced yesterday that Peter A. Brady had been appointed associate racing judge for the coming scason at both the Fair Grounds and Delmar Park tracks. Mr. Brady will be associated in the stand at both places with Joseph A. Marphy. The new associate judge is well and favorably known to local patrons of the terf. He was in the stand with the late John J. Carter at the old East St. Louis race track and gave satisfaction to both horsemen and public.

Mr. Brady has had experience in every atigle of the racing game and his friends believe he has the qualifications becessary to make him a success as a racing judge. He was in businers in Chicago twenty years ago, when his health failed him and his physician advised him to take up an outdoor calling. He was always fond of fast horses, and immediately bought a stable of runners. He was successful from the start as a horse owner, and for years had one of the strongest stables on the old Western circuit. Such good performers as Guy. Force and Poteen carried his colors to victory on all the Western tracks. For awhile he tried his hand at the booking game, and when the Western Bookmakers' Association was in existence Mr. Brady was its president for ten years. at Both Local Tracks. was in existence Mr. Brady was its president for ten years.

Five years ago Mr. Brady and the late John Dorovan of St. Louis formed a partnership and leased the Lindell Hotel, on Washington avenue. They operated this place until Mr. Donovan died, when Mr. Brady retired from the business.

chose. Mounce refused to ride abroad. Fleischman tried to get him; so did Tod Sloan and three English racing firms; but he preferred to sign with Mr. Belmont and ride in America.

Mounce was born in Lewiston, Idaho, seventeen years ago. He began to ride for Bill Fountain, a horseman of the Northwest. His first win was on Tempo, one of Fountain's horses, and later he rode the mare Realia to fame on the San Francisco tracks, it was through Mounce's ability to zet the Realia to fame on the San Francisco tracks. It was through Mounce's ability to get the best out of his mounts that Tod Sloan met defeat at the California tracks last year. The youngster rode to win, and every day he landed one or more winners, outsiders as well as favorites, at Tanforan.

Mounce will come to New York early in April, and will be seen astride of the first horse that Mr. Belmont starts in a race.

BILLIARD TOURNAMENT.

Morningstar, McLaughlin and Other Shortstops Have Entered.

REPULLIC SPECIAL.

New York, April 1.—Another billiard tournament is to take place in this city which is expected to have as participants the leading shortstop professionals of the country. The arrangements now being made are the result of an offer by a follower of the sports to match Ora C. Morningstar, instructor at the Metropolitan Club, against Fred Eames of Boston for $250 a side, after Morningstar's ramarkable performance in so handily defeating Thomas Gallagher and Edward McLaugolin.

George Sutton of Chicago and Eames have been communicated with as to their willingness to enter a sweepstakes tourney, each competitor to contribute $100. Gallagher, McLaughlin and Morningstar have already agreed to play, and Maurice Daly has announced that be will add enough already agreed to play, and Maurice Days bus sanounced that he will add enough money to make it a purse well worth playing for.

The games will each be 400 points at four-teen-inch balk line. Morningstar will play on even terms with the others, although in the last tournament with Gallagher and McLaughlin he played 300 to their 400. McLaughlin at first decided not to eater, but

With the generous move comes a notice

Both men will be on the spot and having been hard at work for the last three weeks with their principals, will be to fine condition for a fast contest. Both men are just a trifle short of championship caliber, but are evenly matched in all other respects. Both are in the neighborhood of 170 pounds, clever and experienced. If two local men can be secured to meet Loenhart and McCarthy it is likely that two matches will be made, at any rate, Manager Haughton hopes to show both trainers in a contest on Monday night.

The opening game of the continuous pool tournament at the Grand Billiard Academy was played Monday night between Thomas McGowan and Arthur Clayton, and resuited in a victory for the former by the close score of 125 to 107.

Clayton monopolized most of the ill luck, but played a plucky up-hill game. His friends were out in force, and although he appeared to be entirely out of it at one stage, many wagers were made that he would secure 100 points. His shot completing 100 points was the feature of the game and evoked enthusiastic appliause. The new balls and table effected the playing of both contestants to an appreciable extent, but the "Old Reliable Skags" played his usual consistent game as soon as he struck his Hanlan Says It Is Less Fatiguing for a Four-Mile Race.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

New York, April 1.—Edward Hanlan, in speaking of the stroke he is teaching the Columbia carsmen, says:

"The characteristics of my stroke are a long stride well forward, the knees bunched under the arm pits, a small body reach, with the body as ereet as possible. As soon as the oar dips into the water the legs are jammed down hard, the weight of the body is on the loin muscles and the arms move in unison with the legs. When the slide is over the hands are shot out on the recover from the body over the knee in the same position they were brought in, and the slide is again carried forward by a pull on the toe straps. The recover is slow and steady and less jerky than in the stroke the men used to raw.

"This stroke is essentially different from that rowed by the men last year and is less fatiguing for a four-mile race. The old oarsmen are having some difficulty in avoiding the drop in the recovery, but this fauit is gradually being eliminated."

The burly German prepares for a contest on the same lines as those followed by Fitzsimmons, with whom, he was associated for years, and, in fact, was for a long time chief of the training camp for the sorrel-topied boxer when he defeated Jim Corbett at Carson City for the world's championship.
